

Art Workshop for Children: How to Foster Original Thinking with over 30 Process Art Experiences
By Barbara Rucci The book's unique child led approach provides a framework for cultivating creative thinking and encourages the wonder that comes when children are allowed to freely explore the creative process and their materials. Interspersed throughout are sidebar essays that introduce perspectives on mess making imperfection the role of adult collaborative art and thoughts on the Reggio Emilia method a self guided teaching philosophy. These pieces underscore the value of art making with children and support the parent/teacher/care giver on how to successfully lead question and navigate their children through the workshops to result in the fullest experiences: Disappointing someone was to lazy to pack it properly at and the cover was folded over in half and packed: 1631591436 I read this book cover to cover and loved the values activities and ideas that were shared: 1631591436 Art Workshop for Children cultivates creativity and encourages deep thinking by encouraging a unique child led approach to art projects, Art Workshop for Children is not just another book of straightforward art projects. As children work through these open ended workshops adults are guided on how to be guides who provide questions encourage deep thinking and help spark an excitement for discovery: Explore basic materials and workshops that use minimal supplies and then gradually add new materials to fill the art cabinets as well as new skills and complex workshops: Art Workshop for Children: How to Foster Original Thinking with over 30 Process Art Experiences

[1]

Great book full of ideas. Highly recommend