

Mated to the Kraken (Tentacle Monster Erotica) (Mythological Erotica Tales) By Trina Rossi

Trina Rossi loves to read and write anything that arouses her or that might excite her readers, Other than that she spends her days prancing around in nothing but a flouncy apron and drinking exotic teas: So Catherine takes a chance and stows away on a ship hoping for adventure and excitement: Little does she expect the carnal ecstasies that will befall her only hours later. Never in her wildest dreams did she think she'd come face to face with it let alone find herself in the greatest state of sexual pleasure imaginable: This 4000-word tale is erotic and full of explicitly sexual scenes involving an innocent young woman a horny sea monster and a whole lot of pervy sailors. It's written for those with very naughty minds who enjoy delving into the extraordinary the dark and the dirty now and then. Mated to the Kraken (Tentacle Monster Erotica) (Mythological Erotica Tales).
