Peter Rabbit Baby Record Book

Beatrix Potter is one of the world's best loved children's authors capturing our imagination for over 100 years with her beautifully illustrated Tales. However few people are aware of the fascinating woman that Beatrix was or the achievements she accomplished in her lifetime during an era when ambitious women were not allowed to flourish. From her first book The Tale of Peter Rabbit (1902) she went on to create a series of stories based around animal characters including Mrs Tigglywinkle, Mr Jeremy Fisher and Tom Kitten. Since 1984 than 150 million Beatrix Potter books have been sold around the world whilst over 2 million Beatrix Potter books are sold every year worldwide - so one Beatrix Potter books sells somewhere in the world every 15 seconds! A source of inspiration was the Lake District where she lived for the last thirty years of her life as a farmer and conservationist:
