

Spoken Emirati Conversation By Hanan Alfardan quot;With this E book learn the most basic commonly used intermediate level sentences and improve your Emirati Arabic vocabulary!This book contains the day to day Emirati arabic conversations on different topics. The conversations have been written in just the right length for any intermediate learner and each line has an English translation and Arabizy (Emirati text written in English for a better pronunciation) on the same page.comHanan Alfardan is a young Emirati lady with very big dream to reform teaching Arabic language as foreign language. She has a master in International Policy amp; Management in Dubai and several years of experience in education sector: She is the Co founder and Managing Director of Al Ramsa Institute for Emirati dialect and culture and has designed and developed learning materials for spoken Emirati. Hanan has taught spoken Emirati to students from different background and nationalities aiming to enrich their living experience in the UAE: quot;I want to add value to peoples lives through language educationquot; she says. With her love of literature conversation and knowledge in general it is a medium though which to tell stories and engage with students effectively. Working in the education sector in Dubai she says is especially fulfilling: quot;We have a great cultural diversity and economic growth int he UAE learning Arabic offers opportunities like everywhere else in the world. These arethe situations that you are most like to come across if staying in the gulf[1]

Hanan Alfardanhanan.alfardan@gmail.Hanan believes that teaching is a rewarding profession.
Spoken Emirati Conversation

