Great life story.How disappointed I am. Sorry but so many spelling/printing mistakes.Good luck to Paul though. An unbelievable story that I won't forget. Some grammatical errors but oh well this man can write. What strength this man has. Really some good insight. The only problem was the ebook seemed to jump topics. I am a firm believer in immunizations. I'm thankful he went through this in a different time. I feel in today's world he may not have thrived. Powerful and insightful to the human condition. Survivors of the 1950s Polio Epidemic in America are rare. Three Minutes for a Dog: My Life in an Iron Lung.
