Roger My 20-month-old daughter loves this series of sticker books. Almost too much! Be aware that if you are getting this for a toddler who hasn't mastered removing stickers by herself, that you will be doing this sticker book with your kid ALL THE TIME. Great for reinforcing colors, types of vehicles, words. Very interactive. Also be aware that the stickers aren't incredibly easy to remove and reapply, and if you do remove them and reapply a few times, they lose their stickiness. That was not a problem for me, as the book provided hours of entertainment and learning. First 100 Stickers: Trucks and Things That Go: Sticker Book by Priddy.

Emergency and farm, the colorful pages feature bright truck photographs to look at and names to read. First 100 stickers makers First 100 Stickers: Trucks and Things That Go: Sticker Book by Priddy Roger My son feels strongly that this book needs cement mixer stickers. Otherwise, it is a very nice book. First half is activities, and the 2nd half is stickers to complete those activities. My son is only 2, so we don't do the activities. Matching colors, words, match a picture with the word, etc. but the stickers are nice, don't rip in the wrong places, too easily peel off, easily enough, and a good quantity for the price. First 100 Stickers: Trucks and Things That Go: Sticker Book by Priddy Roger My son is into sticker books lately, so we have done quite a few. I can say this has been my absolute favorite. My son hasn't put it down today, and it has so many ways to interact with your child in it. I get to ask about letters, words, matching, coordination for getting all the stickers in the right spot. He is particularly liking matching all the vehicles to the color pages. He's almost 5. My only request will be to have the sticker pages perforated in the back so they are easier to rip out. First 100 Stickers: Trucks and Things That Go: Sticker Book by Priddy Roger For the price, this book was larger and included stickers than I expected The book seems to be 'heavy duty' and would withstand a kid dragging it around a little bit I think this book would be best for kids around age 4 5 but any child who has the capability of peeling a sticker will have fun with it First 100 Stickers: Trucks and Things That Go: Sticker Book by Priddy Roger My child is obsessed with cars and this sticker book is perfect for him I love that all stickers are realistic photos Every time he sees the vehicles that he knows the name he was so excited There are 48 pages of pages plus sticker pages This book kept my child busy for a long time First 100 Stickers: Trucks and Things That Go: Sticker Book by Priddy Roger.
